

WOMEN GO TO ATLANTA TO VOTERS' CONFERENCE

Virginia Delegation Named to Attend Regional Meeting of National League.

The Virginia League of Women Voters is to be represented in Atlanta Tuesday and Wednesday at the Third Regional Conference of the National League of Women Voters by Miss Adele Clark, of Richmond, State chairman; Mrs. C. E. Townsend, of Norfolk, director of the Second Congressional District for the Virginia League; Mrs. G. Harvey Clarke, of Richmond, chairman of research and data for the Virginia League; and Mrs. T. E. West, of New York.

The third region is composed of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, Tennessee, and the District of Columbia.

Miss Clark will report for the Virginia League at the opening session, which is called for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Georgia Terrace Hotel.

In response to the question, "How Can the League of Women Voters Be Made More Effective for Good Government?" each state represented is asked to suggest some improved law.

Miss Clark will report for the Virginia League at the opening session, which is called for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Georgia Terrace Hotel.

The afternoon will be given to a mass-meeting Wednesday evening, after which the Virginia delegates will leave for Richmond, bringing with them the delegation from Indiana, treasurer of the National League of Women Voters, who will speak in Richmond Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Womans Club, 111 East Franklin Street. The meeting on Thursday will be held under the auspices of the Virginia League of Women Voters, and will be opened by the president, Mrs. G. W. Kern, chairman of the Richmond League, will welcome the visitors from all parts of the state who are expected to attend to attend the first quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the State League, which will take place Friday and Saturday at the meeting room of the League, 101 North Fourth Street.

MRS. JOHN SKELETON WILLIAMS SPEAKS HERE ON SUNDAY

Mrs. John Skeleton Williams and E. C. Laird will be the principal speakers at a meeting to be held on Sunday afternoon, Room 638, Jefferson Hotel, at 1 P.M., under the auspices of the civic improvement committee of the Richmond League of Women Voters, of which committee Mrs. A. Alison Hartman is chairman. Williams will speak on subject of Vital Importance in Civic Improvement. The subject of Mr. Laird's address will be "The Expanding of Richmond Made Possible."

All persons interested in civic improvement are invited to be present and to plan before the committee any suggestions concerning improving conditions in Richmond for consideration by civic bodies.

This is the first of a series of public meetings to be held under the auspices of the standing committees of the Richmond League of Women Voters.

MRS. PEGEON WILLIAMS SECOND LECTURE TOMORROW

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Williams, director of citizenship education of the bureau of extension of the University of Virginia, will lecture tomorrow morning in the Victoria Room, 62 Jefferson Hotel, the subject being the "Constitution of Virginia." This is the second of a series of lectures to be delivered by Mrs. Peggeon in the next few weeks, the first of which was delivered last Monday morning.

Florida Man Kills Self.

STURKE, FLA., Feb. 5.—E. C. Turbush, 30, of Sturke, Schenectady, N.Y., was found dead yesterday morning purchased near home here last night with a bullet wound in his head and a pistol by his side. He had been ill for days, and had been advised before his manner of suicide because of dependency over ill health. Search for Turbush started when he failed to keep an appointment at which he was to complete a deal for the purchase of another farm.

Whittle Will Speak.

Charles E. Whittle will speak to the boys of the Richmond Yacht Club at 2:30 o'clock in the boys' lobby of the Y. M. C. A. Building. The Old South colored quartet will, by special arrangement, sing for the boys at 3 P.M.

To Beautify Complexion

All You Need is Stuart's Calcium Wafers to Clear the Skin of Pimples, Rash, Blackheads and Such Local Skin Erruptions.

The calcium sulfate in Stuart's Calcium Wafers is nature's contribution to skin health. It is the substance that seeks the skin, assists in its activity, prevents irritation, helps to purify from dirt, and eases irritations from finding lodgment in the skin texture. It sweeps its way through the pores, removing waste products, and may be absorbed into the circulation and thus try to escape through the skin. Use these wafers daily for a few days, and notice how the skin clears, how pimples, blackheads and such kinds of skin eruptions are removed. They simply take the place of all your creams and lotions, and you will find your powder puff, Get a 60-cent box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers today at any drug store and join the ever-growing throng of American complexion beauties—Adv.

A Collection of "ANDREA" Pattern Hats

that will appeal to every woman. Unusually clever models portraying a wonderful variation of styles and colors.

"ANDREA" HATS are so distinctively different, there is one for each individual taste. Hundreds to choose from at $5.00

$7.50
$10.00
And Up

Fields Millinery

219 EAST BROAD STREET

Frog Freed From Cache
in Pickerel's Stomach

By Associated Press.
BOSTON, Feb. 5.—A frog, which had taken up residence in a pickerel's stomach, was dispensed with by Harry Parker, Jr., who hooked the fish through the ice at Mill Pond, N. H. A few minutes after evicting the fisherman, the frog hopped languidly to new quarters behind a stove. The frog's "pickerel stomach" was three inches long.

SCION OF OLD FAMILY IS
FOUND DEAD IN NEW YORK

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Chinese Envoys Fighting.

VALPARAISO, CHILE, Feb. 5.—Chilean government troops are being rushed on special trains to Antofagasta to prevent a strike of miners and workers in a large nitrate plant here which has engaged in fighting. Advees received late today stated that only six persons had been killed during the night, and that the dispute was far from settled.

Clarino that two-thirds had met death. Confirmation has been received, however, that Daniel Jones, in charge of the Gregorio Nitrate Works, and the fighting contractor, was assassinated.

Circuit Court Begins Term.

The Circuit Court of the City of Richmond opens its regular term tomorrow. Judge Scott will read the docket and cases will be set for hearing. The judge requests that all lawyers interested be on hand at 10 o'clock in the morning.

John Skeleton Williams

Spoke Here On Sunday

Mrs. John Skeleton Williams and E. C. Laird will be the principal speakers at a meeting to be held on Sunday afternoon, Room 638, Jefferson Hotel, at 1 P.M., under the auspices of the civic improvement committee of the Richmond League of Women Voters, of which committee Mrs. A. Alison Hartman is chairman. Williams will speak on subject of Vital Importance in Civic Improvement. The subject of Mr. Laird's address will be "The Expanding of Richmond Made Possible."

All persons interested in civic improvement are invited to be present and to plan before the committee any suggestions concerning improving conditions in Richmond for consideration by civic bodies.

This is the first of a series of public meetings to be held under the auspices of the standing committees of the Richmond League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Peggeon Williams

Second Lecture Tomorrow

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Williams, director of citizenship education of the bureau of extension of the University of Virginia, will lecture tomorrow morning in the Victoria Room, 62 Jefferson Hotel, the subject being the "Constitution of Virginia." This is the second of a series of lectures to be delivered by Mrs. Peggeon in the next few weeks, the first of which was delivered last Monday morning.

Florida Man Kills Self.

STURKE, FLA., Feb. 5.—E. C. Turbush, 30, of Sturke, Schenectady, N.Y., was found dead yesterday morning purchased near home here last night with a bullet wound in his head and a pistol by his side. He had been ill for days, and had been advised before his manner of suicide because of dependency over ill health. Search for Turbush started when he failed to keep an appointment at which he was to complete a deal for the purchase of another farm.

Whittle Will Speak.

Charles E. Whittle will speak to the boys of the Richmond Yacht Club at 2:30 o'clock in the boys' lobby of the Y. M. C. A. Building. The Old South colored quartet will, by special arrangement, sing for the boys at 3 P.M.

This Is the Housewives Opportunity to STOCK UP!

You know how low Tragles' prices have always been. You also know that our prices stayed low all through the war. Prices in our lines went up very little compared with everything else.

So you see what it means to put on a great sale like this to celebrate our 24th successful year in serving Richmond with the best, purest household needs at lower prices than ordinarily.

We have sacrificed profits and want you to take advantage of it.

"Stock up!" Buy all you can use for months to come. Thousands have already responded. More thousands will come this week, for everybody's talking about this sale and its remarkably low prices.

Tragles' Fighting.

VALPARAISO, CHILE, Feb. 5.—Chilean government troops are being rushed on special trains to Antofagasta to prevent a strike of miners and workers in a large nitrate plant here which has engaged in fighting. Advees received late today stated that only six persons had been killed during the night, and that the dispute was far from settled.

Clarino that two-thirds had met death. Confirmation has been received, however, that Daniel Jones, in charge of the Gregorio Nitrate Works, and the fighting contractor, was assassinated.

Chinese Envoys Fighting.

VALPARAISO, CHILE, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Chinese Envoys Fighting.

VALPARAISO, CHILE, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Chinese Envoys Fighting.

VALPARAISO, CHILE, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Chinese Envoys Fighting.

VALPARAISO, CHILE, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in his room here last night. A leather belt was drawn in a noose about his neck, and he was found lying on a bed.

Morris formerly reported to have been wealthy. In late years he had been employed as a night watchman by the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Scion of Old Family Is
Found Dead in New York

Leather Belt Tied to Bed Post Is
Discovered Around Neck of
Walter Morris.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Strangled to death, the body of Alvin Gallatin Wallace Morris, aged 65, descendant of New Jersey's first Governor and author of distinguished ancestry, leading to the conclusion that the twelfth century was found in